When peace was de-clared young Near the coun-try school stood

St. las heard the whis-tle from the old saw mill, — He said to Maw and Maud the mule, she brayed when she heard the noise, — The farm-ers all joined dear old Paw, "By heck! they've got old Bill," <sup>CARL</sup> had been back from the in the march with hay-racks filled with boys; The old tin cans they front three days, — so he phoped his girl up town, — "The war is done, so I'll banged a - long, — as St. las led the crowd, — He gave three cheers, for the
